For instance, in the given example, the 2 boxes below 12 must contain 2 digits that add upto 12, whereas for 20, the 3 boxes placed horizontally next to it must add upto 20. No zeroes are used here, only the digits one through nine.

Aries

Finances grow, but be careful. Don't lend money, it will get stuck. Also, don't over-trade for the next few weeks. Some expenses are seen on doctors/medicines/hospitals.

Matters related to siblings will be the focus this week. You may feel that people are judging you lately, but why give them more value than they deserve? In life, there's always going to be a person who gives you the side-eye about something, but what matters the most is what you think about yourself.

Taurus

Jessica Alba

Give yourself the chance to prioritise, to make decisions, to choose how you'll use your limited energy. The 23/24 are excellent days for all kinds of personal/business communications and also for short travels and signing contracts, use the positive Jupiter aspects on your moon. A troublesome yoga of the seventh lord Mars combining with Rahu in your lagna and your sign lord Venus being combust warns you to be very careful of your health throughout the next fortnight, special care be taken for diseases of the face, jaws and colon.

Gemini

R Madhavan

You may need to deal with someone who has a rigid mindset, which is likely to frustrate you. Though you have got out of a host of problems of late, some mischief is still being cooked by your ill-wishers as Mars-Rahu conjunct in your twelfth house. Guard your legs against hurts/injuries. The spotlight is on faraway... Further education and spirituality, so all kinds of interesting developments are likely.

Cancer

Priyanka Chopra Jonas

Friends are trying to help you, however, a combust Venus has rendered them ineffective despite their best intentions. Even though you get good work/business opportunities, you seem to be running into a wall in the end, or at least the profitable income seems denied to you. Avoid trying to force any issues on the career front, as this will be a waste of time. You need to be patient and let things naturally take their course; otherwise, being too assertive could backfire on you.

Leo

Daniel Radcliffe

A combust Venus along with the Sun in your eighth house is not a very good combination either for health or career. However, Mars keeps giving that never-die energy and pluck to you to pursue matters, no matter what the outcome. Try to avoid coming on too strong with someone as it could lead to a fallout. However, if you can avoid getting worked up, you'll be able to win them over. Practicality rules this week. Be sure to use your head not your heart when making big decisions or purchases.

Virgo

Rajkummar Rao

Mundane things move on, however, a combust Venus and an afflicted ninth house show that your father's health is not in the best of shape, and you must be around him for the next fortnight or so. Partnerships are of importance at the moment; things may not have been easy lately, but you're ready to turn over a new leaf, where at least one person is concerned and commit the relationship to a new footing. Something from your past is being stirred up and could be making you feel uneasy. If you need help to deal with this, speak to someone who you trust.

Libra

Mischief is surely in the offing as egotist Mars joins tamasic Rahu in your difficult eighth house. Opponents may be planning are more likely to attract you. If anything drags on too long, expect frustration.

Scorpio

With your sign lord Mars aspecting your lagna, also being afflicted by Rahu and with a combust Venus, it can mean a lot of drama on the partnership front. Take it easy as the breaking point is quite near. This week, the planets could intensify your emotions.

Neeti Mohan

Newly begun affairs go through a shaky phase. You will need to be careful of what you say and how you act when dealing with situations you are uncomfortable with. Your defenses are down at the moment and people can puncture your armour.

Sagittarius

Brad Pitt

Combative situations await you with a loaded sixth house being occupied by combative Mars and Rahu and with Moon joining them on Sunday. Your finances have been constrained and you are feeling the heat now. You feel frustrated when living life on someone else's terms, so politely make clear what will work for you and what won't. You did not ask to be hurt, but hurt you were. At some point, you must forgive those who have caused you pain. If the time's not yet right, don't force anything. Be gentle with yourself.

Pisces

Aamir Khan

It's time to go for what you want and be successful - you deserve it. Opponents will plan and try to do a lot of mischief as long as Mercury moves through your twelfth house, but they are bound to fail. Take advantage of any opportunity for self-reflection to help you on your path. Strength is a reminder that no journey ever goes totally smoothly and no doubt, you will encounter some obstacles and issues, but that you will overcome them and will relish the challenge because it brings you experience and wisdom and confidence in yourself.
